*'In the Beginning was the Word... and the Word was God.
And the Word was made flesh.'* S. JOHN 1:1,14

We will read together E.R. Mascall's Christ, the Christian, and the Church. Fr Eric Lionel Mascall, O.G.S. (1905-1993) was a priest of the Church of England and, along with his friends Austin Farrer and Michael Ramsay, was one of the great Anglican theologians of the 20th century. He was one of the foremost interpreters of the thought of St Thomas Aquinas and his theology was a Thomist synthesis informed by his study of the Church Father's and the early Church's dogmatic pronouncements, and guided by the English Thomist Richard Hooker. Christ, the Christian, and the Church sets out in a robust yet accessible way the classical Doctrine of the Incarnation, then points out the limitations of some modern attempts to 'update' it, and then situates other aspects of the Catholic Faith — e.g., the Church, the Sacraments — within the wider context of the Incarnation of the Word.
